What is a CVAB?

CVAB is a peer-run organization encouraging self-determination and self-sufficiency for people in mental health and addictions recovery. ### The Opportunity

The Skagit Valley REACH Center in Mount Vernon, WA is seeking part-time (approximately 20 hours per week) Peer Support person with strong administrative skills. Specifically, you will be responsible for understanding of your job and applying the skills needed to do that job; understanding of the recovery process and how to use your own recovery story to support others; having the ability to establish healing relationships; and successfully support data entry needs, utilize social media tools and provide detailed admin support as necessary. All of this and more will be in alignment with CVAB's Core Values.

The Qualifications

We are looking for people that are positive, self-motivated individuals, who have demonstrated the ability to work independently and well with others, are in mental health or addiction recovery, and really good at being with others seeking something better or different in life (all are listed on position description on CVAB website—below). Preferences given to WA Certified Peer Specialist or those who can obtain it within 12 months. In addition, there is the ability to work weekdays or Saturdays and until 6 PM.
